

Reflejos De Mi Tierra: Unique Handcrafted Argentinean Bespoke Homeware Collections

Reflejos De Mi Tierra was created by María Valeria Garcia Barrios in 2005.

She was born in Argentina and has been living in Padua in the wealthy area of northeastern Italy since 2000. Inspired by her love for the Argentine handicrafts, she has designed a sophisticated bespoke collection of home decor with exquisite traditional materials and an assured handcraft.

An endless search for natural beauty...this is Maria Valeria's philosophy.

Reflejos De Mi Tierra has an exceptional limited rugs collection. Rugs are designed by Maria Valeria and handmade with 100% pure fine sheep's wool from the Andes hand spun and woven on traditional loom, in its natural colors or dyed with organic elements. It is possible to take advantage of our Bespoke service ordering tailor-made rugs by choosing a pattern from our catalogue, with the size and colors that best fit your project. We will be happy to advise you on your right choice of Bespoke rugs.

Our exclusive throws and blankets collection is made using 100% of fine llama wool, hand spun and hand woven on traditional loom. The main features of each piece are the different shades of ecru, grey, black and brown, natural colors without dyeing.

Barracan and Picote are our luxurious interior fabrics coming from an ancestral craft tradition. They hand woven on traditional loom with hand-spun sheep's wool from the Andes, without any dyeing.

The limited edition of Home Accents collection has been designed by Maria Valeria and handmade by our talented artisans. The material used for this collection is alpaca, known as nickel silver, a traditional metal used by the artisans during the last centuries, combined with astonishing kenua, an exotic Andean root.

The entire Reflejos De Mi Tierra collection is made up of unique pieces. Each piece is one of a kind and is telling its own history, from the beginning to its final destination as an exclusive article to treasure in your home.

Though the production is 100 % handmade in Argentina, Reflejos De Mi Tierra is an Italian company with showroom and inventory in Padua. The lead-time for bespoke pieces is about four months from the time the order is placed. The orders are shipped from Italy with an Italian invoice.

We have had the honor to supply our rug collection for several private and commercial projects, such as: Hotel Le Yule (Val d'Isere, France), Dar Ahlam – Relais& Chateau (Skoura, Marrakech) and private clients in Chicago, Tokyo, Osaka, Sydney, London, Paris, Cannes, Monaco, Brussels, Helsinki, Milano, Cortina d'Ampezzo, Kitzbuhel, among others.
